GCSE
4284/01
HISTORY
UNIT 3: The Development of Germany, 1919-1991
A.M. FRIDAY, 16 May 2014
1 hour 15 minutes

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES
Use black ink or black ball-point pen.
Write your name, centre number and candidate number in the spaces at the top of this page.
Answer two questions from Section A and one question from Section B.
Write your answers in the spaces provided in this booklet. Use supplementary sheets when there is insufficient room in this booklet. Write your name at the top of each supplementary sheet, indicating clearly the number of the question you answer. Put the supplementary sheets inside this booklet.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES
The number of marks is given in brackets at the end of each question or part-question.
You are reminded that assessment will take into account the quality of written communication used in your answers that involve extended writing. These are the questions in Section B.
In addition, your ability to spell, punctuate and use grammar accurately will be assessed in your answer to your chosen question in Section B.
SECTION A

Answer two questions from this section.

1. This question is about political developments in Germany since 1919.

Look at Source A and answer the question that follows.

Source A

[A map showing some of the terms of the Treaty of Versailles]

(a) What does Source A show you about how Germany was affected by the Treaty of Versailles?
(b) Describe how the Allies dealt with Germany at the end of the Second World War. [4]
Look at these two sources about methods used by the Nazis in their attempts to achieve power between 1923 and 1933 and answer the question that follows.

Source B

[A photograph taken during the Munich Putsch of 1923]

Source C

The Nazis were the largest party in the Reichstag and Hitler was invited by President Hindenburg to become Chancellor on January 30\textsuperscript{th} 1933. He had achieved his aim of becoming Chancellor by legal and democratic means.

[From a school textbook]
(c) Use Sources B and C and your own knowledge to explain why the Nazis changed their methods of achieving power between 1923 and 1933.
(d) How successfully did the Nazis consolidate their power in Germany between 1933 and 1939? [8]

END OF QUESTION 1
2. This question is about changes in the lives of the German people since 1919.

Look at Source A and answer the question that follows.

Source A

![Photographs of young Germans in the 1930s]

(a) What does Source A show you about the lives of young Germans in the 1930s? [2]

......................................................................................................................................................................................
......................................................................................................................................................................................
......................................................................................................................................................................................
......................................................................................................................................................................................
......................................................................................................................................................................................
......................................................................................................................................................................................
......................................................................................................................................................................................
......................................................................................................................................................................................
......................................................................................................................................................................................
......................................................................................................................................................................................
......................................................................................................................................................................................
......................................................................................................................................................................................
(b) Describe the treatment of the Jews by the Nazis during the Second World War. [4]
Look at these two sources about the German economy between 1924 and 1932 and answer the question that follows.

Source B

The growth of the economy from 1924 was spectacular. Huge companies grew up and wages and living standards of many workers improved massively. Germany at the time seemed to be the most modern and prosperous country in Europe.

[From a school textbook]

Source C

Germany was in deep depression by 1932. In just three years industrial production halved and unemployment rose to 6.5 million. Some 17 million people – a third of the population – were supported by dole payments.

[From a television series]
(c) Use Sources B and C and your own knowledge to explain why the economic situation changed in Germany between 1924 and 1932. [6]
(d) Why was Konrad Adenauer important in the lives of the people of West Germany between 1949 and 1963?
3. This question is about Germany in world affairs since 1919.

Look at Source A and answer the question that follows.

Source A

![A photograph of demonstrators in East Berlin in November 1989. The posters call for more freedom and reform.]

(b) Describe the Berlin Blockade and the Berlin Airlift.
Look at these two sources about the position of Germany in foreign affairs between 1919 and 1929 and answer the question that follows.

Source B

Germany is a torn and defeated country. We have no control over our own future. The Treaty of Versailles will cause fresh hatred among the nations. Germany will now be seen as an outcast nation.

[From a German newspaper of 1919]

Source C

By the end of the 1920s Germany seemed to be a changed country and the burdens of the Treaty of 1919 were much easier. Germany was again a major European power, ready and willing to take an active role in foreign affairs.

[From a school textbook]
(c) Use Sources B and C and your own knowledge to explain why Germany’s position in foreign affairs changed between 1919 and 1929.
What were the Nazis’ main aims in foreign policy between 1933 and 1939?

END OF QUESTION 3
SECTION B

Answer one question only from this section.

Marks for spelling, punctuation and the accurate use of grammar are allocated to this question. [3]

Either,

4. How successful was Germany’s political and economic development between 1919 and 1991? [10]

In your answer you may wish to discuss the following:

- The years of the Weimar Republic
- The rise of the Nazis
- Developments in post-war Germany
- The reunification of Germany in 1991
- and any other relevant factors.

Or,

5. Did the lives of the German people always improve between 1919 and 1991? [10]

In your answer you may wish to discuss the following:

- Life during the Weimar Republic
- Life under the Nazis
- The impact of the Second World War
- Life in post-war Germany
- and any other relevant factors.

Or,

In your answer you may wish to discuss the following:

- Germany’s position in the world during the Weimar period
- Hitler’s foreign policy and the Second World War
- Germany during the Cold War
- The reunification of Germany in 1991
- and any other relevant factors.

You may only answer one question from Section B.