INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

Use black ink, black ball-point pen or your usual method.

Write your name, centre number and candidate number in the spaces provided on the front cover.

Answer TWO questions from Section A and ONE question from Section B.

Write your answers in the spaces provided in this booklet. If you run out of space, use the continuation page at the back of the booklet, and if this is not sufficient use supplementary sheets. Write your name at the top of each supplementary sheet, indicating clearly the number of the question you answer. Put the supplementary sheets inside this booklet.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES

The number of marks is given in brackets at the end of each question or part-question.

You are reminded that assessment will take into account the quality of written communication used in your answers that involve extended writing. These are the questions in Section B.

In addition, your ability to spell, punctuate and use grammar accurately will be assessed in your answer to your chosen question in Section B.
SECTION A

Answer TWO questions from this section.

1. This question is about political developments in Germany since 1919. [20]

   (a) Describe how the Allies dealt with Germany at the end of the Second World War. [5]

SOURCE B

The Nazis were the largest party in the Reichstag and Hitler was invited by President Hindenburg to become Chancellor on January 30th 1933. He had achieved his aim of becoming Chancellor by legal and democratic means.

[From a school textbook]
Look at the two sources opposite about methods used by the Nazis in their attempts to achieve power between 1923 and 1933 and answer the question that follows.

1(b) Explain why the Nazis changed their methods of achieving power between 1923 and 1933. [7]

[In your answer, you should use the information provided in the sources and your own knowledge to show the extent of change and the reasons for this]
1(c) How successfully did the Nazis consolidate their power in Germany between 1933 and 1939? [8]
END OF QUESTION 1
2. This question is about changes in the lives of the German people since 1919. [20]

(a) Describe the treatment of the Jews by the Nazis during the Second World War. [5]
SOURCE A

The growth of the economy from 1924 was spectacular. Huge companies grew up and wages and living standards of many workers improved massively. Germany at the time seemed to be the most modern and prosperous country in Europe.

[From a school textbook]

SOURCE B

Germany was in deep depression by 1932. In just three years industrial production halved and unemployment rose to 6.5 million. Some 17 million people – a third of the population – were supported by dole payments.

[From a television series]
Look at the two sources opposite about the German economy between 1924 and 1932 and answer the question that follows.

2(b) Explain why the economic situation changed in Germany between 1924 and 1932. [7]

3. This question is about Germany in world affairs since 1919. [20]

(a) Describe the Berlin Blockade and the Berlin Airlift. [5]
SOURCE A

Germany is a torn and defeated country. We have no control over our own future. The Treaty of Versailles will cause fresh hatred among the nations. Germany will now be seen as an outcast nation.

[From a German newspaper of 1919]

SOURCE B

By the end of the 1920s Germany seemed to be a changed country and the burdens of the Treaty of 1919 were much easier. Germany was again a major European power, ready and willing to take an active role in foreign affairs.

[From a school textbook]
Look at the two sources opposite about the position of Germany in foreign affairs between 1919 and 1929 and answer the question that follows.
