INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES
Use black ink or black ball-point pen.
Write your name, centre number and candidate number in the spaces at the top of this page.
Answer two questions from Section A and one question from Section B.
Write your answers in the spaces provided in this booklet. If you run out of space, use the continuation page at the back of the booklet, and if this is not sufficient use supplementary sheets. Write your name at the top of each supplementary sheet, indicating clearly the number of the question you answer. Put the supplementary sheets inside this booklet.

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES
The number of marks is given in brackets at the end of each question or part-question.
You are reminded that assessment will take into account the quality of written communication used in your answers that involve extended writing. These are the questions in Section B.
In addition, your ability to spell, punctuate and use grammar accurately will be assessed in your answer to your chosen question in Section B.
SECTION A

Answer two questions from this section.

1. This question is focused on the main features of Germany’s political development since 1919. [20]

   (a) Outline the main events leading to the reunification of Germany by 1990. [5]
Look at these two sources about how the Nazis increased their support and answer the question that follows.

[Number of seats gained in the Reichstag election, May 1928]

Source B

On election day July 31st, 1932, the Nazis received 13,745,680 votes – over 37% of the total – and gained 230 seats in the German Reichstag. It was a stunning victory for Hitler. The Nazi Party became the largest political party in Germany.

[From a school textbook]
(b) Explain why the Nazis increased their support between 1928 and 1932.

In your answer, you should use the information in the sources and your own knowledge to show the extent of change and the reasons for this.
(c) How significant was opposition to the Weimar Republic between 1919 and 1924? [8]
2. This question is focused on changes in the lives of the German people since 1919. [20]

(a) Describe Adenauer’s economic miracle. [5]
Look at these two sources about unemployment in Germany in the 1930s and answer the question that follows.

Source A

By the end of 1933 unemployment had topped 6 million, 23% of the population. Even those in work suffered as many were only working part-time. With the drop in demand for labour, wages also fell and those with full-time work had to survive on lower incomes. For many the situation appeared hopeless.
